

Stay well this Festive Period

Your guide to health services in south east Essex this for Christmas day, bank holiday Monday (28th) and New Year's Day.

GP APPOINTMENTS

GP practices will be closed on the three bank holidays (Christmas Day, Boxing Day, and New Year's Day) over Christmas.

South east Essex has an extended access scheme which offers GP and nurse appointments weekday evenings and at the weekend all year round. If you would like to book an appointment through this extended access scheme, then please phone your registered GP practice.

Please note that GP practices will be open as usual between Boxing Day and New Year's (Tuesday 29 and Thursday 31 December).

JUST THINK 111 FIRST

If you have an urgent medical problem that's not life-threatening, or you're not sure what to do, just call NHS 111 first.

The NHS 111 team will direct you to the service that best meets your needs. If that's a visit to the emergency department at your local hospital, they can book you a time slot when you'll be seen.

Are you feeling low, worried or lonely?

Feeling low at this time of year is common. If you feel you need help then please get in touch with someone. There are a number of support services in our area, including 24 hour support:

Online mental health support:

Southend: southendccg.nhs.uk/your-health-services/mental-health

Castle Point & Rochford: castlepointandrochfordccg.nhs.uk/your-services/mental-health

If you are feeling tense or anxious and need to talk to someone, mental health support is now available for over 18s 24/7 via the NHS 111 helpline. Under 18s can call NELFT out of hours: 0300 555 1200

Samaritans: Call 116 123 free 24/7

For children and young people, free, safe and anonymous online counselling and can be accessed via Kooth – kooth.com or Togetherall – togetherall.com

Dentists

If you think you need urgent dental treatment, call your regular dentist. If you cannot contact reach your dentist or you do not have one, use the NHS 111 online service. If you need an appointment, this will be arranged at an urgent dental care centre.

Much of Essex Tier 4: Stay at Home

As of Sunday 20 December, much of Essex is under the Tier 4 coronavirus alert level. This means:

- You must not leave or be outside of your home except for where you have a specific purpose such as work or essential food shopping. You should work at home if at all possible.
- You must not meet with another person from outside your household socially or undertake any activities with anyone. There are some exceptions such as support bubbles or childcare.
- Many non-essential businesses are closed, including non-essential retailers, hospitality venues, leisure and sports facilities and personal care facilities like hair dressers and beauty salons.
- Restrictions will no longer be relaxed over Christmas. You should not meet with other households over the Christmas period.
- For more information on these changes visit: www.gov.uk/guidance/tier-4-stay-at-home
